

Stand is a group of ordinary citizens, asking people from every walk of life to share ideas about the community's future. A strong future builds on the best of today and is honest about what needs to be better tomorrow. Real change comes from honest input, and great input comes from all corners of the Chattanooga region. Stand wants to hear from every person and every neighborhood. By uniting our voices as a community, we can ask ourselves - and our leaders - to make a difference.
